

Roadmap to Justice Fall Symposium Agenda

9:00am	Continental Breakfast available
9:30am	Introduction Alfred C. Aman, Jr. Dean and Professor of Law, Suffolk University Law School James G. Sokolove Law Offices of James Sokolove / Sokolove Charitable Fund Participants
10:00am-12:00pm	Overview Project Objectives Deborah L. Rhode Director, Center on the Legal Profession E.W. McFarland Professor of Law Stanford Law School <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Identify areas of greatest need based on stakes and volume, and relevant sources of data Russell Engler Professor of Law and Director of Clinical Programs New England School of Law2. Identify potential strategies, including: increased public support for legal representation, court-mandated representation (Civil Gideon); law reform (simplification, unbundling); court reform (pro se assistance); increased reliance on non-lawyers and technology; increased pro bono and improved quality control; increased law school involvement3. Identify potential sources of resources4. Identify challenges and possible responses (public education, policy initiatives, judicial initiatives)5. Identify project strategies
12:00-1:00pm	Lunch
1:00-2:15pm	Breakout session on topical issues: Civil Gideon / Role of Law Schools, Involvement of the Private Sector / Pro Bono Assistance, Court Reform / Law Reform, Technology / Pro Se, Funding / Role of Bar, Non-lawyer Assistance
2:15-2:30pm	Break
2:30- 4:00pm	General session / reports from breakout discussions
4:00-4:15pm	Break
4:15-5:00pm	Forecast of strategies and agenda for spring and summer events
5:00pm	Adjourn
5:30pm	Dinner