

JULIET M. BRODIE

jmbrodie@law.stanford.edu

Stanford Law School
559 Nathan Abbott Way
Stanford, California 94306
(724) 724-6346

Stanford Community Law Clinic
2117 University Ave., Suite A
East Palo Alto, CA 94303
(650) 475-0560

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Stanford Law School

Stanford Community Law Clinic, Director

Associate Professor (Teaching) 2006 – present

Visiting Associate Professor 2005 – 2006

- Direct community-based clinic, supervising law students practicing in low-income neighborhoods; practice includes litigation, community impact projects, and legal education
- Clinic subject areas include landlord-tenant, workers' rights, and other civil matters
- Teach accompanying clinic seminar on community lawyering, substantive law, and ethical issues in client-centered poverty law practice

University of Wisconsin Law School

Frank J. Remington Center

Director, Neighborhood Law Project

Associate Clinical Professor 2005-2006

Assistant Clinical Professor 2000-2005

- Directed general civil clinical poverty law practice emphasizing issues of economic justice for the working poor; subjects include landlord-tenant, public benefits, consumer, and employment matters
- Taught accompanying clinic seminar
- Additional, non-clinical teaching: Poverty Law
- Law school committees: Admissions, Skills & Outreach (clinical policy), Public Interest Law Foundation grant-making committee, and Loan Repayment Assistance Program Review Committee

Clinical Assistant Professor, University of Michigan Law School, Michigan Clinical Law Program, 10/98-6/00

- Initiated and designed community-based clinical concentration
- Managed general poverty law practice case load including individual litigation (housing, benefits, criminal, and family matters), legal education, and community impact projects
- Supervised student casework, and taught accompanying seminar

Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor, University of Michigan Law School, Michigan Clinical Law Program, Poverty Law Clinic, 9/97-12/97

- Co-taught clinic focused on issues of women and poverty
- Supervised student casework, assisted in design of course materials and syllabus, co-taught seminar on women and poverty, trial skills, and Michigan family and benefits law

Assistant Attorney General, Wisconsin Department of Justice, 11/93-7/98

Prosecutor, Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, 5/95-7/98

Children's Justice Act Coordinator, 11/93-5/95

Project Coordinator, Wisconsin Supreme Court Committee on Court-Related Needs of People with Disabilities, 1/93-11/94

- Oversaw all activities of project to study and report to the state Supreme Court on the implementation of the Americans with Disabilities Act in the court system

Associate (litigation), Hill & Barlow, Boston, MA, 9/91-11/92

Special Assistant to Senior Administrative Officer, Massachusetts Department of Mental Health, Boston, MA, 1986-1988

PUBLICATIONS

- “Post-Welfare Lawyering: Clinical Legal Education and a New Poverty Law Agenda,” 20 Washington University Journal of Law and Policy 201 (2006)

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE & AWARDS

Chair-Elect, Poverty Law Section, Association of American Law Schools, 2006-2007

Recipient, Harvard Legal Aid Bureau Distinguished Alumni Award, 2006

Member, Editorial Board, Clinical Law Review

Advisory Committee, University of Wisconsin, Morgridge Center for Public Service, 2002-2005

City of Madison, Section 8 (Housing Voucher) Advisory Committee, November 2003-August 2005

Steering Committee & Legal Advisory Committee, Workers' Rights Center, Interfaith Coalition for Worker Justice, 2002-2004

PRESENTATIONS AND PROFESSIONAL TEACHING

- The Rules of Professional Responsibility & Ethics in Community Lawyering, March 2005
- The Rules of Professional Conduct: Special Topics in Landlord-Tenant Practice, January 2004
- Selected subjects in employment law and client relations, Workers' Rights Center, multiple dates 2003-2004
- Wisconsin State Bar, Public Interest Section, program on Ethics in Public Interest Lawyering, June 2003
- Ethical Issues in Public Interest Practice, April 2002

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School, J.D., 1991, magna cum laude

President and Student Attorney, Harvard Legal Aid Bureau, Harvard Law School, 1989-1991

Brown University, A.B., 1985, magna cum laude and with departmental honors