

PRO BONO COMMITMENT STATEMENT
ACADEMIC YEAR 2011-2012

Stanford Law School
Levin Center

DEADLINE : Return to Betsy de la Vega in Room 21A
by Tuesday, Sept. 6 @ 4 p.m.

CLASS OF 2014!
YOUR PRO BONO COMMITMENT GOAL IS...100%!!!

Make the Class of 2014 the first in the history of SLS to have 100% commitment to participation in the Pro Bono program! The Pro Bono Program is for all students – regardless of their ultimate career goals.

The Pro Bono Program is voluntary, but if you decide to register for it, you are making a commitment. Here are your obligations:

1. By volunteering for a project you agree to personally carry out all of the duties required by that project. This personal obligation may not be fulfilled by finding a replacement, regardless of whether the pro bono placement involves a weekly session or a public service trip.
2. By volunteering for a project, you agree to arrive at all required sessions on time and finish all related required work.
3. By volunteering for a project, you agree that you will be performing law-related work for which you will receive neither academic credit nor compensation. Further, you will be performing your work in a professionally responsible manner and in accordance with all relevant rules of professional conduct.
