

SUPREME COURT LITIGATION CLINIC

(Law 436, 423)

Instructors: Pam Karlan, Jeff Fisher

Application for 2011/2012

Name: _____ Year of Graduation/Degree: _____

E-mail: _____ SID # _____

Address: _____ Phone: (_____) _____

Please indicate the quarters for which you are applying to this particular clinic:

Fall 2011 Spring 2012 Both

If both, please indicate whether you have a preference between these quarters:

Fall 2011 Spring 2012 No Preference

Have you taken another Clinic? _____ If so, which one and when? _____

Are you applying to the advanced clinic for the Fall 2011 quarter? Y N Quarter in which basic clinic was completed: _____

Total number of clinical credits taken as of the end of the Spring 2011 term: _____

Be sure you have read the course description so you understand the nature of the work involved. You should probably talk to one of the current members of the clinic about what the clinic entails.

Application Information: Please respond to the following questions on separate sheet(s) of paper. Please also attach a copy of your resume.

- Why are you interested in enrolling in the Supreme Court Litigation Clinic? How does it fit into your educational or career plans? You need not spend more than a page on this question.
- Please attach an up-to-date copy of your resume, which you may augment by separately describing any experience you have had working on appellate litigation, either before law school, during law school, or over the summers.
- Provide us with a copy of your transcript that indicates the professors (including legal writing instructors) who have taught you. If there are other people who can comment on your legal writing ability whom you think we should contact, please provide their names and contact information.
- Provide us with a writing sample of no more than ten double spaced pages that reflects your ability to do persuasive doctrinal writing. Examples of the kind of work we are looking for include briefs or memoranda of law – from other clinics, summer jobs, Fed Lit, moot courts – or law school papers that involve doctrinal analysis. Entirely interdisciplinary or highly theoretical work is less helpful to us in considering your application.

(Print) _____ (Sign) _____ (Date) _____

To apply, please place an original and three copies of this application including any attachments in the application tray at the clinic office front desk. The deadline to apply will be announced.