Notices

If you are offered admission, Stanford reserves the right to withdraw that offer of admission if: 1) you show a significant drop in academic performance or fail to graduate; 2) there has been a misrepresentation in or a violation of any of the terms of the application process; 3) we learn that you have engaged in behavior prior to matriculation that indicates a serious lack of judgment or integrity; or 4) you reserve a place in our entering class and make an enrollment commitment or make a deposit at another law school. Stanford further reserves the right to require you to provide additional information and/or authorization for the release of information about any such matter.

The American Bar Association requires that applicants for admission to law schools be advised to obtain information regarding the requirements for admission to the Bar in the state(s) in which the applicant intends to practice. Please be aware that all states evaluate the moral character and academic accomplishments of applicants for admission to the Bar, and some states require registration before beginning the study of law.

Stanford University complies with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. Stanford's policies and statistics under this act are posted on the Department of Public Safety website at <http://www.stanford.edu/group/SUDPS/safety-report.shtml>. A paper copy can be obtained by calling the Stanford Department of Public Safety at (650) 723-9633.

Certification

My signature below indicates my agreement to the terms and conditions of the Stanford Law School admissions process (including those stated in the JD Application Procedure section on the Stanford Law School admissions website). I hereby certify that the information provided on this application form and in any attached materials is true and complete, and that the personal statement is my own work. I shall promptly inform the Law School if there is any change in any of the facts indicated herein.

I also understand and agree that acceptance is conditional upon meeting any further requirements, terms, or conditions expressed at the time of acceptance. The Law School does not authorize nor is it bound by any requirements or conditions other than those communicated by the Office of Admissions.
