PLEASE BE ADVISED that _____ (LAST NAME) (FIRST NAME) (MIDDLE NAME)

is an applicant for admission to Stanford Law School. Each year the number of applicants to the law school far exceeds the number that can be accepted. You will greatly assist this applicant and the School by providing specific and candid answers to this inquiry. The information you provide will be treated as confidential except that the applicant may elect to retain the right of access (see waiver above). Please note that the candidate on whose behalf you are writing may apply for a joint degree with another school or department here at Stanford at a later date. Upon request by the candidate, we will forward your letter of recommendation on to that degree program for review. Thank you for your cooperation.

1. In what context do you know the applicant (e.g., tutorial, seminar, lecture, etc.)? _____

2. To your knowledge, has the applicant acted in an honorable and trustworthy manner in academic work, employment, and social relationships? _____

3. Please attach a letter or statement discussing your views of the applicant's intellectual strengths and performance and the applicant's qualifications for the study of law. Because nonacademic factors play an important role in our admissions process, we also welcome your comments as to the applicant's leadership, motivation, interpersonal skills, emotional maturity, and capacity for innovation.
