

APPLICATION FEE WAIVER INSTRUCTIONS

In order to have the Office of Admissions review your request for a waiver of the $75 application fee, you must complete the Application Fee Waiver Form found on the Stanford Law School website.

In addition to completing the form, you must provide us with a copy of your award notice or notification letter from your Financial Aid Office. This is required for current students or students who have graduated within the past year. It should include your current/last budget, a breakdown of your expected resources, and a list of scholarships and loans you are/were receiving. If you have received a waiver from Law Services, please send in documentation of that decision. We will consider this documentation in our review process.

All questions, including those relating to parental income and assets, must be answered. Failure to respond to all questions will result in an automatic denial of your fee waiver request.

If you choose to apply for a fee waiver, please do not submit a credit card payment at the time you apply electronically to Stanford Law School. Submitting a credit card payment of $75 will result in an automatic withdrawal of your fee waiver request.

A decision for your application fee waiver will be sent to you via e-mail within 1-2 weeks of receipt of all necessary documents.

The completed fee waiver form and documents should be returned to Stanford Law School by mail to the Office of Admissions, 559 Nathan Abbott Way, Stanford, CA 94305-8610 or by e-mail at admissions@law.stanford.edu.

Please contact the Office of Admissions at 650 723.4985 or admissions@law.stanford.edu with any questions about the fee waiver application instructions.
