

Dear Fellow SLS Alumni,

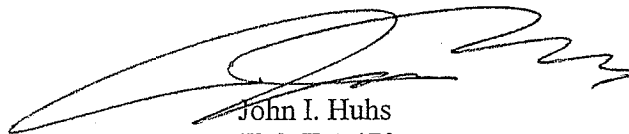

I am delighted to see Stanford Law School has established a European Alumni Association.

We have long needed an organization to bring together Stanford Law School alumni who are actively involved with, or interested in, public and private transatlantic legal issues, as well as the national legal systems.

Although the globalization of the practice of law has long been evident, the past two decades have witnessed an extraordinary internationalization of our day-to-day professional activities. SLS alumni are increasingly practicing in or with Europe or otherwise involved with the transatlantic relationship. The SLS European Alumni Association will provide us a useful forum.

I plan to participate actively in the Association's activities and invite all like-minded alumni to do likewise.

Sincerely yours,
