

THE PTO AND THE COURTS

Co-sponsored by the Stanford Program in Law, Science, & Technology, Samsung Electronics, and the Stanford Technology Law Review

Stanford Law School
Academic Day, Saturday, April 18, 2015

8:00 am REGISTRATION AND BREAKFAST

8:30 am Panel 1 Colleen Chien, Santa Clara (topic: empirical study of IPRs)
Jake Sherkow, NYLS (Litigating Patent Medicines: Courts and the PTO)
Commentator: Dave Schwartz, Chicago-Kent

10:30 am BREAK

11:00 am PANEL 2 Arti Rai, Duke (topic: CBMs and patentable subject matter)
Joe Miller, Georgia (topic: definiteness)
Dennis Crouch, Missouri (claim construction in the PTO)
Commentator: Mark Lemley, Stanford

12:30 pm LUNCH

1:30 pm PANEL 3 Tejas Narechania, Columbia (topic: judicial deference to the PTO)
John Golden, Texas (topic: deference to PTAB)
Paul Gugliuzza, BU (topic: preclusion in disputes)
Commentator: Lisa Ouellette, Stanford

3:30 pm BREAK

4:00 pm Panel 4 Brian Love, Santa Clara (topic: empirical study of IPRs)
John Duffy, Virginia (topic: the shift in power from courts to the PTO)
Commentator: Dan Burk, Irvine